all you need to know

Introduction

A place to dream – with your eyes wide open.

- 2 The dream of the sports car becomes reality before your eyes at the Porsche Museum, where you can delve deep into the exciting world of Porsche. Covering 5,600 square metres, the exhibition area is filled with legendary racing cars, iconic road models and fascinating prototypes and studies. More than 80 vehicles are just waiting to be discovered – and heard – but there is also plenty to discover away from the main exhibition. Besides culinary and cultural delights, an adventure awaits our younger guests too.

At the end of the exhibition tour, it's time to get interactive: the Porsche Touch Wall takes you on a virtual journey in time thanks to some exciting high-tech features. You can also watch live demonstrations of some of the restoration work that is carried out on the classic Porsche cars in the Museum Workshop, as the team prepares them for their journeys around the world.

Situated above the workshop is the 'memory' of Porsche AG – the Porsche Company Archives. Housing around two kilometres' worth of files, it is where all the company's information is stored, from the economic, technical, social and cultural aspects to around 1,700 hours of film footage and 2.5 million photos.

You can take a pit stop at any time during your visit at the coffee bar, Bistro Boxenstopp or the Christophorus Restaurant. Meanwhile, our museum shop offers plenty to set the hearts of young and old Porsche fans racing.

Look forward to an action-packed visit and hours of entertainment in the Porsche Museum, and don't forget all you need to know can be found in this brochure.

What's on at the museum

Let us lead the way. We do have some experience of leading, after all.

Museum guided tours

Public and private guided tours

Experience the company history of the Zuffenhausen sports car manufacturer. During the tour you get exciting insights and discover stories relating to the current exhibition in the Porsche Museum. We offer these guided tours for a maximum of 20 people in a closed group or together with other guests.

Awareness tour

In the 90-minute awareness tour, you experience and participate in the history of Porsche from a completely different perspective. The focus of this tour is on increasing self-awareness. The tour is also suitable as a team-building exercise. The minimum age requirement is 12 years of age.

Guided tour for persons with disabilities

We offer guided tours for people with hearing or visual impairment, as well as tours in simple language. Please note that sign language interpreters must be organised by tour participants themselves.

Escape game

Experience the Porsche Museum through an exciting puzzle challenge. Work as a team to solve a wide range of diverse tasks on passion, pioneering spirit, performance and design. The escape game combines team spirit, fun and digital elements. It can be booked for groups of up to five people over 14 years of age and includes museum admission.

You will find further information about prices and registration on our website www.porsche.com/museum

Plant tours

Take a look behind the scenes, at the home of the brand's heart and soul – the headquarters in Zuffenhausen.

Get up close to the cars at selected stations on their way through production and experience the perfect combination of tradition and modernity. Since 2019, the plant has been producing an innovative, fully electric car, in addition to the traditional models.

You will find further information about prices and registration on our website www.porsche.com/museum

What we offer children and school classes

Calling all children. Because it's never too early to follow your dreams.

- 8 In the Porsche Museum, children can explore the exhibition at their own pace through various topics by solving a variety of creative and crafty tasks in the Porsche 4Kids Rally. The rally is available at the checkout in the Porsche Museum. Porsche 4Kids tours and the free Porsche 4Kids Multimedia Guide explain the exhibition in an age-appropriate way.

Ever thought about celebrating a birthday surrounded by more than 30,000 PS? A Porsche 4Kids Birthday Party can be themed around Motor Sports, Design or the Future, with those attending getting the opportunity to be a racing driver, designer or researcher for the day.

The Porsche Museum offers special programmes that teach technology, design and history in a practical and age-appropriate way. Our services promote teamwork, discussion and creativity – and can be flexibly integrated into the classroom.

We are also continuing the 90-minute Porsche 4School Tours for all school classes. Please also contact us if you are interested in guided tours for pupils with disabilities. During the school holidays, the Porsche Museum invites children to take part in a variety of free holiday programmes.

You will find further information about prices and registration on our website www.porsche.com/museum

Museum Shop

A quick lap of the Museum Shop means a great voyage through the Porsche universe.

A thoughtfully curated selection of interesting and unusual objects from the history of Porsche can be found in the Museum Shop, whether you're looking for a special souvenir of your visit or a collector's item. Look out for exclusive editions of model cars, beautifully made clothing, and homeware and accessories for historic as well as current cars.

11

The Museum Shop also offers a wide selection of books, including a selection from the company's own publishing house, Edition Porsche Museum. Made in Zuffenhausen, these fascinating special editions combine detailed expert input with in-depth background information and previously unseen treasures from the Porsche brand.

Please also feel free to visit our workshop at Lorenzstrasse 16, just a ten-minute walk from the Porsche Museum.

Corporate Archives and Museum Workshop

We preserve our history.
And put it onto the road.

With a history stretching back more than 100 years, there are a lot of stories to keep alive. We're talking two kilometres of files, 2.5 million photos and slides, 4,500 books, 1,700 hours of film footage, 7,300 posters and advertisements and around 25,000 small exhibits – all of which are carefully stored within the Porsche Company Archives.

In order to keep our car collection real and roadworthy, we have our own Museum Workshop, where the historic racing and sports cars are maintained and serviced to prepare them for rallying, events and tours, and the rest of the collection is kept in tip-top condition. The workshop team also carries out full restorations as well as any remedial work.

Food and Drink

It's worth looking up from your meal now and then. You might just spot a legend.

The Porsche Museum has a wide and sophisticated culinary menu, with everything from speciality coffees and snacks with an international flavour, to exceptional fine dining. Recharge your batteries in the coffee bar in the foyer, have a freshly cooked meal prepared in front of you in the atmospheric Bistro Boxenstopp, or book a table in the acclaimed Christophorus Restaurant, where regional and seasonal ingredients are used to create a mouth-watering menu. You can also try our house speciality – freshly grilled US prime beef – and choose from a wide selection of German and international wines from our carefully chosen cellar. Restaurant guests can enjoy a panoramic view over the Porscheplatz and the 'Inspiration 911' sculpture, as well as the exhibition itself.
