Porsche x SMEG Collection

Kettle – Porsche x Smeg

A kitchen appliance that makes a statement – clear in form, precise in function. Smeg's iconic 50s look meets the puristic design language of Porsche: matt Black accents on the handle, base and spout, plus the characteristic Porsche stripe on the casing.

With a capacity of 1.7 litres, it is ideal for every need, from breakfast to five o'clock tea. The soft opening lid opens gently, and a removable stainless steel limescale filter keeps the water clean. With automatic switch-off at 100°C and a 360° base, it lives up to its promise – functional, versatile, stylish.

Fridge 917 Salzburg – Porsche x Smeg

A design object with performance aspirations – inspired by the Le Mans victory of the Porsche 917 KG Salzburg in 1970. The complete outer casing features the historic Red Salzburg look: with original stripe graphics and the iconic number 23. A tribute to the racing car that made motorsport history.

Limited to 1,970 units, each refrigerator bears a metal plaque with an individual limited edition number – each appliance is unique. The door is thermoformed from a single piece – based on a mould specially developed for this project – and guarantees seamless transitions along the entire surface. The hand-painted Porsche stripe runs across the doors and sides. Matt black elements on the handle and a Smeg logo add puristic design accents. The handle design is inspired by the Porsche 911 GT3 RS.

The interior design also reflects the design language of the exterior: dark accents in the interior profiles ensure visual continuity. With a usable volume of 270 litres, double-sided LED interior lighting, double freshness drawers and a 26-litre static freezer compartment, the refrigerator combines functionality with motorsport-inspired design. A real statement piece.

Porsche x HEAD Skis 7 Series – 911 Targa 60Y

Pure dynamics, inspired by racing – the Porsche 7 Series Targa. These high-performance carving skis bring the dynamics of a Porsche Turbo to the slopes: stable, fast and precise. Their World Cup sandwich construction with solid wood core and Titanal® layers ensures an uncompromising mix of racing performance and everyday versatility. With a 70 mm waist width, the skis perform like racing skis, but still leave room for control and comfort.

Vibrations are reduced and stability is maximised, especially during fast and powerful cornering, thanks to innovative EMC technology from HEAD. The sophisticated side cut and high-end construction make these skis the first choice for carving experts who value precision, speed and maximum edge grip.

The exclusive design was created for the 60th anniversary of the Porsche Targa – a tribute to a legend.

Sunglasses P'8478 – Turbo No. 1 – Limited Edition

With this version of the P'8478 Turbo No. 1, Porsche Design is delivering a very special model as a tribute to the Porsche 911 Turbo for its 50th anniversary. Both the original paint colour of the vehicle and the legendary chequered pattern have been incorporated into the design of these iconic Porsche Design sunglasses with the innovative interchangeable lens mechanism. Both pairs of lenses and the left temple feature the Porsche Design logo. On top, the detailed look of the limited edition is underlined by subtle Turbo branding on the left lenses.

Extremely lightweight titanium and durable coated lenses made of scratch-resistant and virtually unbreakable polycarbonate ensure that the Porsche Design 'exclusive sunglasses' not only enjoy an impressive innovative design but also maximum functionality. The iconic Porsche Design Sunglasses P'8478 are the first sunglasses in the world to feature an interchangeable lens mechanism: the teardrop-shaped 6-base curve lenses with Vision Drive technologyTM can be easily exchanged with interchangeable lenses using a quick-release system, allowing them to be adapted to different lighting conditions and styles. Each pair of sunglasses in this special collection comes in a high-quality Turbo No. 1 gift box with a special Turbo No. 1 lens cleaning cloth. Laser-engraved limited edition number on the frame, limited to 1,974 units worldwide, based on the anniversary year 1974.

Reversible women's jacket – Turbo No. 1 Collection

The Turbo No. 1 Collection delivers Porsche performance with tartan accents as a tribute to the interior of the first 911 Turbo. The horizontally quilted reversible jacket for women is as stylish as it is comfortable. One side dazzles with its clean design, the other with a characteristic tartan pattern. Maximum comfort is guaranteed thanks to a lightly padded, high stand-up collar with integrated cords and a boxy shape. The two Porsche letterings, embroidered on the left breast and as 3D print below the collar on the back, and the story label on the lower left hem edge are true design highlights. The 3D Porsche/Turbo branding on the left sleeve completes the stylish look of the jacket.

WAP352XS-3XL0RTN1

Reversible jacket – Turbo No. 1 Collection

The reversible jacket is stylish both inside and out. The outside is characterised by a clean design with square quilting and features side welt pockets and a patch breast pocket. The reverse dazzles with an iconic tartan plaid and also scores points with side welt pockets and two patch breast pockets. Characteristic Porsche finesse is also evident with the branded reversible buttons and the width-adjustable cuffs. The story label on the bottom left hem edge rounds off the detailed design.

WAP350XS-3XL0RTN1

Polo shirt – Turbo No. 1 Collection

The polo shirt is a genuine eye-catcher with the tartan design on the shoulders, drawing attention to the knitted stripes on the cuffs and turn-down collar. Coffee table book – AHEAD Collection

Road trip meets lifestyle: the AHEAD collection invites you on an unforgettable journey through the southwestern United States, captured in an extraordinary coffee table book. It offers exclusive images and background information on the first AHEAD road trip, which stretches from the lively streets of California and Nevada, through the picturesque landscapes of Los Angeles and Las Vegas, over the Sierra Nevada mountains to the endless expanse of Death Valley. With 911 pages filled with authentic, genuine lifestyle photographs and high-quality printing, made in Germany, the coffee table book aims to provide insights, inspire, and spark dreams – whether it is about embarking on your own road trip or embracing personal freedom. The open thread binding not only underlines the craftsmanship, but also makes the book with an open and printed spine a unique eye-catcher on every shelf. The hardcover and the special thread binding allow the book to be opened flat, which optimises reading pleasure and the photographs' appearance. A tribute to the love of travel and the pursuit of freedom, captured in a work that appeals to both the soul and the eye.

Pepita
Collection

Chronograph – Pepita Collection

The chronograph from the exclusive Pepita Collection was designed by Studio F. A. Porsche. Contemporary features win the race: equipped with a RONDA analogue quartz movement and a case made of finely brushed stainless steel, the chronograph captivates with its polished crown and pushers with a rose gold coating as well as an engraved Porsche crest on the front face. The mineral glass with sapphire and anti-reflective coating protects the dial, which features a monochrome 3D print of the Pepita pattern and a Porsche crest. Super-LumiNova-coated hour and minute hands ensure optimal readability. In addition to the date window at 4 o'clock, the chronograph boasts three totalisers for comprehensive time measurement: second counter (3 o'clock), chrono 30-minute counter (9 o'clock), chrono hour counter (6 o'clock). The butterfly clasp – adorned with engraved Porsche lettering – and 'Made in Germany' lettering at 6 o'clock complete the exclusive appearance. In short: refined details and the perfect combination of form and function make the Pepita chronograph a real must-have for all racing fans.

Porsche 911 baby walker

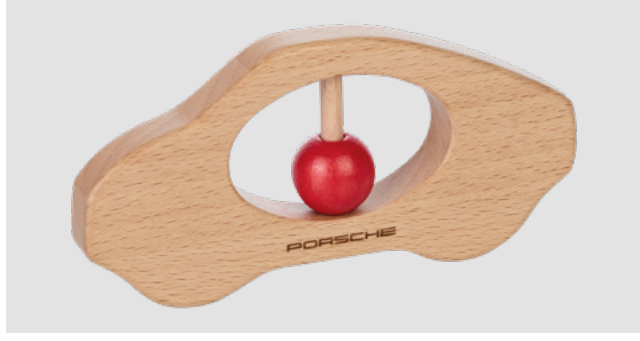

Learn to walk safely – with that Porsche feeling. The Porsche 911 baby walker provides the perfect support for little explorers. Made from robust beech and maple wood, it enjoys an impressive and well-thought-out design. The rubberised wheels ensure smooth, non-slip movement on indoor floors, while the ergonomic handle fits perfectly into small hands and supports balance. The adjustable friction brake ensures individually adjusted speed – so every step is a success. The paintwork on the walker is inspired by the Porsche colour Cartagena Yellow Metallic, making the walker even more eye-catching. For children from 12 months.

LEGO® Technic Porsche 911 RSR

Step by step to your own Porsche: the LEGO® Technic Porsche 911 RSR brings a real classic car into your home or office. The legendary shape and aerodynamic details, such as the rear wing with swan neck connection and rear diffuser, make every heart beat faster. The specially designed side mirrors are particularly striking and underline the racing character. However, the display piece offers more than just good looks. A visible, functional differential and the six-cylinder flat engine with moving pistons bring technology to life. The accessible cockpit has impressive radar monitoring, functional steering and a fire extinguishing system. The Leguna Seca race track on the inside of the driver's door underscores the attention to detail of the model. The realistic front and rear lights as well as authentic stickers provide the finishing touches.
