Accessories for the Panamera model range

SportDesign package

Do you want your Porsche to remain a Porsche? Being different is one thing, being tastefully unique and intelligent about it is another.

Not only do accessories have to be visually appealing, they also have to be technically compatible. Tequipment range of accessories is developed to perfectly complement all Porsche models.

All Tequipment products can be retrofitted after purchase or ownership of the car.

SportDesign package.

Sportswear should be functional and tailor-made. The SportDesign package consists of an striking front apron with black air intake grilles (left, centre, right), distinctive sideskirts and the rear apron equipped with a finned diffuser. The SportDesign package comes with two options, with sideskirts and without sideskirts.

Available for all Panamera models. Panamera equipped with Adaptive cruise control will receive modified front apron to fit the sensor.

Sports tailpipes.

Give your Panamera a more aggressive look with the twin dual-tube Sports tailpipes in highly-polished chrome-plated stainless steel.

Not compatible with sports exhaust system. Not available for Panamera Diesel or Panamera S Hybrid.

Door sill guards.

For a sporty and striking effect, illuminated or non-illuminated door sill guards provide a stylish and dramatic finishing touch.

Available in elegant materials: Yachting Mahogany, carbon and brushed aluminium.

Available for all models.
