32nd AvD Oldtimer Grand Prix 2004

The 32nd AvD Oldtimer Grand Prix will be held at the Nürburgring from 6th to 8th August 2004 – a highlight in the calendar for all fans of historic motorsport and of course for all Porsche fans.

There is no more fitting opportunity to experience the Porsche legend than at the Oldtimer Grand Prix at the Nürburgring. For three days, everything in the spacious Mercedes Arena is devoted to the marque for which the slogan "Driving at its Best" was invented. Porsche Classic has put together a package for you, which is not to be missed.

Be a guest at the entertaining interviews with personalities from the Porsche scene or marvel at what is on offer from the numerous departments of the Porsche company that will be represented. Porsche Classic will have information about the availability of spare parts, the Classic Centre will be demonstrating its expertise in restoration, the Exclusive and Tequipment departments will be presenting their range of accessories and you will also be able to experience how spare parts are produced in the so-called living workshop. Also on hand will be staff from the Porsche Club Coordination and Porsche Deutschland, who will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

The countless Porsche cars parked on the site, reflecting almost the complete history of the marque, will be another very eye-catching sight. If you want your Porsche to be part of this, all you have to do is purchase a VIP package, as that includes a parking space on the site – space permitting. People who buy a package but will not be travelling in a Porsche can park their car outside the racetrack on a reserved car park that is easily accessible from the paddock.

The VIP package also gives you unlimited access to the hospitality tent, where drinks will be provided and a buffet arranged each lunchtime and evening. Of course, you will also have access to all of the open grandstands at the track and to the paddock and, last but not least, everyone who purchases a package will receive a free gift in the form of a limited edition model car and a T-shirt.

The VIP package costs 249.– Euro. The order form can be found here or downloaded from the Internet.

For members of a recognised Porsche Club, the price will be 199.– Euro.

Simply contact your Porsche Club, which will send in a group booking. Membership must be proved by sending a copy of your Club card.

The form for Porsche Clubs can be requested from Porsche Classic at: ogp04@porsche.de

We look forward to welcoming you to this event.
