A Porsche Pictorial: The Christophorus Poster

Sixty years of Porsche sports-car history fills volumes.

In this anniversary year of 2008, Christophorus has featured articles about key events, famous vehicles, and people from the company's history. This summer there was a special edition to commemorate the sports cars' birthday. Christophorus subscribers can consider themselves lucky, as issue 332 has become a collector's item. And 4 of the 98 pages are particularly popular: the "Model Character" section, which depicts all Porsche sports cars from 1948 to 2008. It uses few words but many images—a colorful and fascinating model-by-model history in the form of a centerfold.

It would be a shame to have this neat document of automobile and contemporary history just sit on the bookshelf. So now there is a full poster-sized edition that allows you to trace the racing line of Porsche through the generations right up to the very latest 911s.

Enough said: 152 images speak for themselves. Here's the order form.
