The night before, you won't be able to sleep.
The night after, you won't want to.

European Delivery.

You've been thinking about your Porsche for a long time; you've weighed up all the reasons – emotional and rational – and if we were to guess, were the emotional reasons a touch stronger?

We know the feeling only too well, and of course, we want to further heighten yours: with a day that you will never forget. The first day with your new Porsche – your European Delivery day.

In Zuffenhausen or Leipzig, you can see for yourself how a Porsche is produced – piece by piece – and watch our people as they work. At both locations, you will have the opportunity of getting to know the history of the Porsche brand at first hand.

One of the highlights in Zuffenhausen – as well as the Porsche Museum – is your vehicle handover in the historic 'Werk 1' (Plant 1), where the foundations of the Zuffenhausen site were laid. Here, where it all began, a specialist will explain your vehicle.

In Leipzig, one of the best parts is the Porsche Circuit with its dynamic circuit, offering a variety of special handling challenges. And that is where you will enjoy a dynamic vehicle induction from a qualified Porsche instructor. And the best experience of all? When you sit in your own Porsche and start the engine for the first time.

So, from a rational point of view, a very special day. From an emotional point of view, a truly personal day – yours.

Historic or sporty?
That's purely a gut decision.

Zuffenhausen and Leipzig.

You've chosen your Porsche? Congratulations. Your car stands for Fascination Sports Car, as does the European Delivery. Regardless of whether you opt for Zuffenhausen or Leipzig. Which side of the Porsche brand inspires you more? In which of these two worlds would you like to immerse yourself for a whole day, when collecting your Porsche? Zuffenhausen focuses on the history of the sports car while Leipzig places emphasis on a sporty driving experience.

A unique success story began in Zuffenhausen more than 70 years ago. Today, as then, this is where sports car icons are created. Discover this and much more during a European Delivery tour. And especially when collecting your Porsche in the historically significant 'Werk 1' (Plant 1), where the first 911 was built. You could hardly get any closer to the roots of the Porsche brand. The modern and historical production sites have almost as many stories to tell as the legendary exhibits in the Porsche Museum. This is where the heart of Porsche beats.

In Leipzig, on the other hand, your pulse will soon be racing if you prefer to get to know Porsche from a sports performance perspective. After all, here – in one of the world's most modern and sustainable automotive factories – is where Porsche models like the Panamera and Macan are not only built, but are also thoroughly tested. On the circuit. And this is precisely where we will teach you about your new Porsche – at full speed. During our dynamic vehicle induction, when an experienced Porsche instructor will explain all the functions in a model similar to yours.

Historic or sporty? You decide. Whichever you choose – it will be exhilarating and will always include a factory tour, where you will see just how much precision and dedication goes into making a Porsche, and a three-course meal when you can let yourself be spoiled in one of our exquisite restaurants. But whether it's Zuffenhausen or Leipzig: the highlight of your day is already decided – your vehicle handover.

Please arrange an appointment for your European Delivery with your authorized Porsche dealer, who will provide any other relevant information about current availability, formalities and country-specific regulations.

Welcome to Zuffenhausen

How to increase the feeling of anticipation? With a day in Zuffenhausen.

Welcome to Zuffenhausen.

Stuttgart-Zuffenhausen. For Dr. Ing. h.c. F. Porsche AG it's far more than a production site that is rich in tradition and the ancestral home of Porsche. This is where the heart of Porsche beats. Since 1950, over a million Porsche sports cars have been produced in Stuttgart – including the very first, the 911.

In 1938, the Porsche design office moved from Kronenstraße 24 in the center of Stuttgart to a new building in Zuffenhausen, today's 'Werk 1' (Plant 1). That is when automotive history was written: with the zero series of what was to become the Volkswagen Beetle. The type 64 followed in 1939 – the forerunner of all Porsche sports cars.

In 1944, the design office moved to Gmünd in Austria, in order to escape the adverse effects of the war. After the first Porsche 356 cars were produced there from 1948, Porsche returned to Stuttgart-Zuffenhausen at the end of 1949. As an American truck repair unit was housed in Porsche 'Werk 1' (Plant 1), the first production preparations began in a hall rented from neighboring Stuttgarter Karosseriewerk Reutter & Co. GmbH.

This is where the first type 356 car was completed on April 6, 1950. By the end of the year, there were to be 369 cars. And the extension of the Zuffenhausen production facilities was also progressing apace: the building complex comprising Porsche 'Werk 2' (Plant 2), designed by the well-known architect Rolf Gutbrod, was erected in 1952. By 1956, the ten thousandth Porsche 356 had already left the constantly expanding production halls.

In 1956, it was possible to return to 'Werk 1' (Plant 1), where the motorsport and development departments were located until the Weissach Development Center opened in 1971. In addition to many other advancements, the 911 sports car icon was also developed in 'Werk 1' (Plant 1), which replaced the type 356 in 1964. At the end of 1964, Porsche took over the Reutter production buildings, including the thousand-strong workforce. In 1969, the three-story assembly hall appeared, in 1982 an automated high-bay warehouse, and in 1986 the paint shop. Halls for bodywork and engine construction followed in 1988. The Porsche Museum was finally completed in 2009, and the new paint shop in 2011.

As a result of the decision to put the Taycan, the first all-electric Porsche, into series production, Zuffenhausen underwent its biggest ever expansion. And its most forward-looking. For example, parts of the facade of the new plant, a 'zero impact factory', feature nitrogen dioxide-absorbing surface technology. Future technology, both inside and outside the plant. Because CO₂-neutral production involves significantly more components. And also means that only clean energy is used during manufacturing. Two new combined heat and power plants that run exclusively on biogas have also been connected to the grid. And rail is used for domestic German logistics traffic. But the overall concept of advanced production also includes electric lorries.

As ever, the 911 models are still produced in the Zuffenhausen plant. And the ultra-modern engine plant also supplies the Leipzig factory with units, in addition to Zuffenhausen.

The special feature is that the series-production cars are manufactured on the same production line as the racing versions. That's unique in the whole of the automotive industry. A sight that you must not miss when you collect your car from the factory. Just like the Porsche Museum. A place where reliability, an awareness of tradition, as well as the spirit of innovation can clearly be seen and felt. Within its extraordinary architecture, you will enjoy an exciting journey through the history of Porsche.

You see, in Zuffenhausen it is not only your car that awaits you, but also the history of the brand. And the future of car manufacturing. That has already begun with this factory expansion.

You come to collect your Porsche.
And also take the whole history away with you too.

European Delivery in Zuffenhausen.

Over 70 years of awe-inspiring and moving stories – ample reason to collect your car from our factory in Zuffenhausen. If you want to receive your new Porsche directly from our headquarters, you can expect not only a day that is full of anticipation, but also a whole day's journey of discovery through the fascinating world of Porsche. Find out how your day in Zuffenhausen might look in detail on the following pages.

Factory tour.

You will seldom get closer to the professionals who build a Porsche. The tour of the production area will give you a completely new view of our cars. And behind the scenes. Be it in engine construction, the upholstery shop or final assembly, you will receive fascinating insights into the production of sports car icons. You will be guided by Porsche enthusiasts whose passion and knowledge of the Porsche brand has developed over many years.

VIP restaurant/Guest Casino.

At Porsche, collecting your car from the factory is an experience – for all of your senses. We are therefore pleased to invite you to a culinary three-course meal in the VIP restaurant/Guest Casino between 11:15 am and 1:30 pm. Take a moment to relax – even if it's not that easy when you are about to be handed the keys to your new Porsche vehicle.

Porsche Museum.

You can see how strongly the future is determined by the tradition of the Porsche brand during a visit to the Porsche Museum. More than 80 cars and numerous small exhibits await you in a unique building. In addition to world-famous automotive icons such as the 356, 550, 911 or 917, the early technical pioneering work of Professor Ferdinand Porsche is also showcased. The journey through time starts with the electric Egger-Lohner C.2 Phaeton from 1898. Then, gradually, the Porsche history comes alive – from motorsport to road.

A factory tour is conducted in German or, by prior arrangement, in English. We would like to point out that, for operational reasons, a full tour is not always possible. And unfortunately, children under 12 are not allowed for safety reasons. We will be happy to arrange child care for you on request.

So what now stands between you and your childhood dream?
Just one brief moment.

Vehicle handover.

You have already seen and experienced a lot during the day – and now it's time for a lot of fun: when your Porsche is handed over by our experts. They will passionately explain your new car to you and look forward to conducting a technical discussion on an equal footing – from one Porsche enthusiast to another, as it were. Can't wait to get to know your new Porsche? Then use our 'Good to know' app before your visit and vehicle hand-over. Its detailed information and videos about your Porsche will help to pass the time. And provide ideal preparation.

You can easily download this and a number of other apps via Apple® App Store or the GOOGLE Play® Store.

For Porsche drivers, the moment their car is handed over is usually a very special event. And so we record it for you. With a personal souvenir photograph – as a memento of your European Delivery. And there is also a gift in perfect keeping with your car.

Delivery takes place in our delivery hall in 'Werk 1'. We present your car to you with a full tank, or fully charged, because we know that once you have started driving a Porsche, it's hard to stop.

Welcome to Leipzig

A day in Leipzig can be a lot of things.
Just not boring.

Welcome to Leipzig.

Want to discover all aspects of Porsche? Then Leipzig is the place for you. A real eye-opener – not only as regards the driving characteristics of a Porsche. Your first glimpse of the diamond-shaped Customer Center will also set your pulse racing.

The Panamera and Macan are currently produced in the Leipzig plant. And between 2003 and 2006, the small series of the now legendary super sports car, the Carrera GT, was also produced here. All these cars have one thing in common: they carry the Porsche gene. And in addition to production, there's a lot more to experience here at Porsche Leipzig. In the Customer Center for instance. And, of course, on the factory's own on and off-road circuits.

Because we cannot describe just how unmistakable the cars are – you have to experience it for yourself: on the factory's own on-road circuit with dynamic driving area. This unique track was designed by Hermann Tilke, racing driver and creator of numerous Formula 1 tracks such as in Malaysia and Bahrain. He devised something very special for the Leipzig track – the most spectacular bends from world famous racetracks have been recreated here, from the Suzuka S (Suzuka, Japan), through the Carousel (Nürburgring, Germany) to the Parabolica (Monza, Italy). With the addition of the 2.2 km dynamic circuit, there is now also a 120 m skid pad to which water can be applied, and a dynamic stretch that's over 150 m long. Special driving situations can be simulated more intensively here. To provide a better understanding of the limits of driving dynamics and develop a driver's skills.

Another highlight in Leipzig is the off-road track boasting 6 km of challenges through unspoilt countryside. Fifteen off-road modules put the driver's ability to the test – for instance, a 100 m long water crossing, a steep ascent with an 80 % incline, a 35° slanting section and various driving surfaces, such as sand, mud and gravel. A challenge that you will best tackle together with an exceptional off-road athlete, the Cayenne or Macan.

In short: you will remember collecting your car from the factory in Leipzig for a long time to come.

If your thoughts only revolve around Porsche, you belong on the circuit.

European Delivery in Leipzig.

At Porsche, the route from circuit to road – and vice versa – is a short one. A lot of developments have been derived from our experience on the racetrack. You will sense the passion for motorsport everywhere at Porsche – when we hand over your car in Leipzig, for instance. Just one reason for European Delivery in Leipzig. We have a few more in store for you.

Make sure you allow plenty of time when you come here. We have lots of things planned for you to do. Look forward to an exciting day at Porsche – and your dynamic vehicle handover. Refer to the following pages to discover everything that will ensure an exhilarating experience when you collect your car from Leipzig.

Theory is still always best when put into practice.

Dynamic demonstration of the car.

A Porsche is designed to be driven. And you want to drive. So get going: at the wheel of a Porsche, provided by us, that is similar to yours. Sitting next to you, your co-driver – a Porsche instructor with motorsport experience. Ahead of you, the circuit, where you can experience Porsche performance up close, while getting to know the functions and controls of your car. On the 150m long dynamic stretch, for instance. Ideal for finding out for yourself how and when Porsche Stability Management (PSM) kicks in at the limits of dynamic driving. We simply call this a dynamic demonstration of the car. Theory the Porsche way.

Want some more driving? Please go ahead: on our off-road track, where you and the Cayenne or Macan will tackle sensational off-road modules. The instructor will explain Porsche Traction Management (PTM) – and give you some tips and tricks on how to make effective use of the car's enormous power when off-roading.

Factory tour.

Take a look behind the scenes: the factory tour takes you into the heart of Porsche Leipzig – the production area. This is where the Panamera and Macan are produced according to the latest technical principles of modern automotive manufacturing. See with your own eyes how the cockpit – the control center for the driver – is created. Or how the roof lining and windows are installed with pinpoint precision. Using state-of-the-art technology. And with the passion of each and every person involved. The highlight is of course the marriage – the uniting of drivetrain and chassis with the body. Finally, during the initial drive on the factory's own circuit, our test drivers personally check the quality of each individual car one last time.

We would like to point out that, for operational reasons, a full tour is not always possible.

An exhibition of historic and current Porsche models.

A brief journey through Porsche history awaits you at the top of the Customer Center. The ever-changing exhibition of cars – with an exciting mix of historic and current vehicles – offers you a fascinating insight into the past and present of Porsche: a journey through time, through many decades of sports car history.

Please understand that the full exhibition of our cars might not always be available to view, due to large events being held in the Customer Center.

Restaurant.

Of course, your European Delivery also includes an exclusive three-course meal in our restaurant. Enjoy the excellent food and a view over the circuit.

Handing over the car.

You have now almost reached your destination: your Porsche. For the vehicle handover, your instructor will accompany you to your new car and spend time presenting and explaining all the details. None of your questions will go unanswered. Then the roll-up door will open.

Have a good journey.

When can we expect you?

Leipzig. A cosmopolitan city with a remarkable history. Anyone visiting this city should take their time. The hospitality appears inexhaustible – as is the number of sights.

For example, the historic city center where you can visit Faust's local, 'Auerbachs Keller'. Or the famous St Nicholas Church, whose unique Ladegast organ has been restored with help from Porsche. And it goes without saying that the internationally renowned Gewandhaus Orchestra is well worth a visit. The orchestra's musical quality was reason enough for us to become a sponsoring partner.

Discover other highlights of a city where the Peaceful Revolution took place from 1989 to 1990, finally leading to the fall of the Berlin wall and the opening of the border.

Please note that winter tires are obligatory in Germany when there is black ice, hard-packed snow, slush and icy or frosty conditions.
